Description

Elegant coffee table in carved and ebonized wood, with inlays and bone fillets on the top. The lyre legs, characterized by a refined silhouette, are supported by shaped crosspieces. The decoration of the top is distinguished by fillets and carved details that recall vegetal and grotesque motifs, inspired by the Renaissance; animals and figures intertwine harmoniously in vegetal curls, giving life to a composition of class and elegance. This coffee table is a sophisticated piece of furniture, capable of giving a touch of taste and refinement to any environment. It is attributed to Florentine manufacture from the mid-19th century.
