Description

Description: Very beautiful and rare Pair of Solid Mahogany Celettes, English Style. Highlights:

Discover this magnificent pair of solid mahogany celettes, made in the English style of the first half of the 19th century. These elegant and refined pieces, close to the neoclassical style and the First

Empire period, have a sophisticated design: o

Structure: Each cell rests on three finely carved feet decorated with palmettes, typical of English taste and inspired by Antiquity. o

Twisted column: A twisted central column of great finesse, symbol of the craftsmanship of the time. o

Upper tray: These celettes are cushioned by a round tray, perfect for holding a pair of candlesticks, elegant bronzes or any other object of art. These pieces are ideal for lovers of the English style, appreciating neoclassical influences
