

Etruscan Votive Head

4 400 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Description

Male Votive Head

Etruria, 3rd century BCE

- Material: Terracotta
- Height: 28 cm
- Condition: Very minor losses, otherwise in excellent condition

Provenance:

Private collection from southern France

Comparable works:

- Louvre: S5727, ED2089, Cp4062

Description:

This piece depicts the frontal face of a bearded man. It belongs to the production of terracotta

Dealer

ES Works of Art

Haute époque, antiquités

Mobile : 0677286074

sur rendez-vous

Paris 75018

votive offerings from the Etruscan region, particularly prominent during the Hellenistic period and especially in the 3rd century BCE. Such works were often dedicated in sanctuaries and reflect the artistic and cultural traditions of ancient Etruria.