Description

This sumptuous box contains a set of knife rests, accompanied by two salt shakers and their spoons, in gilded porcelain, signed ROBJ, Paris. These accessories are made of porcelain with a gold finish, each piece having a luxurious shine. Their elegant design reflects the Art Deco aesthetic, with clean lines and gilding work that highlights the refinement of the period and the two salt shakers, decorated in the same gilded style, complete the set, accompanied by small spoons for precise and delicate serving. The box is lined with satin on the inside, protecting the pieces and emphasizing their value. Its navy blue exterior adds a classic touch. Founded in Paris in the 1920s, ROBJ is famous for its ceramic creations combining fantasy and refinement. The company played a central role in the Art Deco
