

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Yongzheng Chinese Porcelain Plates 18th Century Qing Dynasty Van Frytom Dishes Scheveningen

1 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 20 cm.

Height : 2.5 cm.

Description

A pair of Chinese porcelain blue and white 'Van Frytom' style 'Scheveningen' or 'Deshima' dishes. Yongzheng period (1722-35).

Ref:

A 'Van Frytom' style dish is in the Metropolitan Museum of Art collection, accession number 2002.447.116. This dish is also illustrated in Japanese Art from the Gerry Collection in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, p. 114, pl. 93.

For an illustrated example of a similar dish, but made in Jingdezhen in the Kangxi period (1662-1722) see D.S. Howard, 'The Choice of the Private Trader' (1994), p. 44, pl. 11.

Lunsingh Scheurleer, Chine de Commande,

Dealer

Menken Works of Art

Art Asiatique

Tel : 00316-14916974

Herengracht 240

Amsterdam 1016BT

Londen, 1974, pl. 272, illustrated, in the Museum
De Sypsteyn, Loosdrecht.

D. Howard and J. Ayers, China for the West,
Londen, 1978, vol. 1, no. 32, illustrated, from the Mottahedeh Collection.

Le Corbeiller, China Trade Porcelain: Patterns of Exchange, New York, 1974, pl. 10, illustrated.

Dimensions:

Diameter 20 cm, height 2.5 cm.

Condition:

One of the dishes with a chip, both dishes with some glaze loss to the rim.

Inv. No: MW108