Description

Tibet, early 20th century, very pretty embossed copper seal decorated with a plant motif made around a shell (conch). The knob is covered with turquoise marquetry; the center is decorated with a small coral cabochon. The seal itself is made up of an ornament that is very characteristic of Tibetan culture. A creation of fine quality, giving the object a precious character and reflecting the social rank of its owner. Height 14 cm. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a brand known to all. Good condition except for slight normal wear and tear without incidence. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. Shipping is carried out with insurance included. Shipping rates: Metropolitan France: 22 euros, European Union countries and Switzerland: 28
