

Victorian 9ct Rose Gold Agate Seal Top Hexagonal Propelling Pencil, Engraved With Flowers

420 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Length : 9.5 cm

Diameter : 6 mm

Height : 1.3 cm

Description

Beautiful Victorian seal top mechanical propelling pencil. Hexagonal form, fashioned from 9ct rose gold and set with a white agate hardstone seal to top.

Engraved all over with flowerheads, scrolling foliage and other botanical motifs in typical Art Nouveau style.

The pencil is fully functional and still has its lead. The seal top is blank, so this pencil can be engraved as a present.

Made in England, c. 1880s

XRF tested for 9ct gold

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

9kt / 9k / 375 gold

15.14 g

9.5 cm collapsed

12.5 cm full extended

6 mm diameter overall

1.3 cm diameter at top

Excellent antique condition. Light scuffing appropriate to age and use.