Description

Ancestor portrait painting, China, dating from the end of the 19th century.

Ink, watercolor and gouache on paper. Portrait of a seated mandarin woman, dressed in a quasi-official sleeveless hsia pei jacket, equipped with a buzi or mandarin square indicating the 5th grade in the civil hierarchy (silver-colored).

She wears a quasi-official Manchu apron skirt.

All with classic decoration of dragons, lingzhi-shaped clouds, celestial mountains, etc.

She wears a very sophisticated di guan headdress and a mandarin necklace called chao zhu.

She is seated on a wooden armchair placed on a carpet decorated with many flowers. Quality painting with very fresh colors which gives it a super decorative power, the luxuriance of the flowers present on the entire painting is soothing
