Description

Set of three vases signed by Adriano Seguso, showcasing the artistic heritage and unique expertise of the Seguso family. Originally based in Murano, renowned for its exceptional blown glass, the Seguso family expanded their craft upon relocating to Brazil, where they continue to explore new forms and materials while honoring traditional glassmaking techniques.

Each piece in this series harmoniously combines colored Murano blown glass with a sculptural base made from petrified tree roots. The bases, carefully selected and crafted, bring a natural, organic dimension to the vases, contrasting beautifully with the color and transparency of the glass.
