Description

Ceramic vase, stoneware, from Pierrefonds, early 20th century, art deco style. Very beautiful piece typical of the productions of this factory at its peak in the 1920s with its blue enamels and its magnificent crystallizations giving a modern character on the edge of abstraction, remarkable for this period. Manufacture created in 1912 by the Count of Arras who signed his pieces FH surrounding a helmet taking up the name of the factory, Faïencerie Héraldique. Signature of our vase that we can place around the 20s 30s. Possibility of sending in France and around the world by secure and insured package with transport tracking by specialized carrier. Invoice and certificate provided.
