Description
-------------

Splendid Vieux Paris (Old Paris) porcelain large milk jug / carafe. Round baluster form, resting on a stepped pedestal foot. Ribbed design with alternating white porcelain and gilded vertical stripes; the handle has applied moulded acanthus leaf decoration. Sumptuous gold plating makes this a wonderful example of the Empire style.

This shape and gold/white palette were very popular at the turn of the 19th century; similar examples were produced by Royal Vienna as well as Sevres.

This pitcher was decorated by Jean-Pierre Feuillet (active 1814-1834). The base is unmarked, but the jug came from the same estate collection as:
