Description

This oil on wood painting by Arthur Midy, entitled Intérieur Breton, depicts a scene of traditional Breton life, full of authenticity and warmth. The artist, known for his realistic and poetic depictions of rural life, captures here the atmosphere of a rustic interior. A woman, dressed in traditional Breton costume, sits near an imposing wooden furniture, surrounded by elements that reflect the daily life of yesteryear, such as the fireplace and the spinning wheel. The play of rich colors and the carefully crafted details highlight the texture of the walls, the polished wood of the furniture and the soft light that bathes the room. The patinated frame, in an old style, accentuates the historical and timeless character of this work. A perfect piece for lovers of genre scenes and authentic Breton art.
