Description

Pair of carved walnut panels from the Renaissance period, 16th or early 17th century, mounted as doors at the beginning of the 19th century. Observe the two scenes which are different by the positions of the characters who are turned with their torsos towards the inside or the outside. See at the back the period panels with dovetail grooves to prevent the board from warping. In the upper and lower part the oak additions made at the beginning of the 19th century (see photo red arrows) Dimensions 46 x 43 cm, dimensions of period panels 46 x 36.5 cm.
