

Silver Oil And Vinegar Pot

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Restoration period (Louis XVIII) oil and vinegar cruet resting on a gadrooned tray supported by 4 ball-shaped feet. The central barrel allowing the whole to be lifted ends with a ring whose ends are connected by a palmette.

It's composed of two glass bottles which are inserted into a silver bottle holder decorated with palmettes and a gadrooned edge. 1 bottle is larger than the other but it can be recut. These bottles each have their stopper which can be inserted into their silver stopper holder with a gadrooned edge.

Hallmark: Vieillard.(1819-1938)

Height of the whole: 30.5 cm

tray: 22 x 17 cm

Dealer

Assour & Sumer

Orfèvrerie et argenterie, arts de la table

Mobile : 0680387535

village notre Dame , 61 rue notre Dame

Bordeaux 33000