Description

Elegant and unique, this medium-small sized chest is made of solid carved and turned walnut. The undertop is adorned with a refined gold leaf decoration, which is also repeated on the panels, giving a touch of great elegance. The panels also feature exquisite geometric decorations made with the burin, complete with fake inlays in the panels and painted in bright red and blue colors, inspired by precious stones. This chest, of fine workmanship and class, is capable of enriching any room with sophistication and style. Tuscan-Umbrian manufacture from the 16th century.
