

Iron And Wood Boarding Axe Dated To Around 1830

2 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Height : 63 cm

Description

Boarding axe in iron and wood composed of a double-edged head: the cutting edge also allows for cutting ropes and the neck, in the shape of a hook, for self-defense.

Flexible metal part allows the axe to be attached to the belt.

Wooden handle.

Dimension: diagonal height 63 cm.

France datable around 1830.

Dealer

Galerie DELALANDE

Marine & Sciences, Tobacco & Opium objects, Canes, Curiosa

Tel : 00 33 1 42 60 19 35

Mobile : 00 33 6 60 90 21 59

35 rue de Lille

Paris 75007