Description

Late 18th century pastel painting depicting a young soldier in costume or a canteen girl toasting a glass in her hand. Very pretty painting in the original colors that have kept all their original freshness. Interesting subject addressing the themes of militaria and that of light and colorful 18th century characters. The result is a certain decorative effect that will give cheerfulness and originality to a beautiful interior. Beautiful size, 50 by 65 cm, allowing installation above a chest of drawers or console. Possibility of sending in France and worldwide by professional carrier or by secure and insured package with tracking. Invoice and certificate provided.
