Description

Large Limoges porcelain lamp resting on a square base entirely painted in fine gold. The belly is decorated on one side with a charming bouquet of flowers made in shades of blue. The other side is decorated with a stylized rose made in fine gold. The two sockets in the shape of busts of winged women are also entirely decorated in fine gold. This lamp is sold with a modern white lampshade. The electrification is in good condition. This lamp is signed Caffy in the lower part of the decoration. It also bears the workshop stamp under its base. Please note: following a slight firing defect, the base of our lamp has undergone a slight deformation without affecting the stability of the whole (see last photo).
