Description

COD 10518 Great French writing desk of the first half of the 20th century. Louis XV style furniture in walnut, mahogany and oak richly adorned with gilded and chiseled bronze and brass of excellent quality. Desk finished from the center equipped with three drawers of good capacity, central drawer complete with working key. Upper top covered in faux leather finely chiseled and gilded on the edges. Top of excellent size and service with brass and bronze decoration on the side border, beyond the wooden band (see photo). Fabulously furnished living room or study desk supported by four solid legs with bronze clawed ball feet (see photo), for antique dealers and interior decorators. Top that has old signs of wear that give even more charm to the furniture (see photo). Structurally sound writing table, overall
