Description

Regency period mirror in gilded wood. The frame is in carved oak with a Bérain decoration with foliage, flowers and shells on a mesh background. The arched pediment is openwork in the center around a basket of flowers (one flower is missing). On either side, leaves and flowers unfold on a crossbar background, shells at the top and base of the pediment. A bird is perched on each side. The mirror is later. Some chips of gilding, cracks on the pediment and shells visible in the photos.
