

Sterling Silver Black Enamel Cigarette Case, London, 1932.

400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

This cigarette case is an exquisite piece of Art Deco design, hallmarked for London 1932. The front features a sleek black enamel finish with one corner adorned by a marcasite rectangular motif, adding subtle sophistication. The reverse side is decorated with an engine-turned pattern, showcasing meticulous craftsmanship. Very attractive silver stripes around the contour. Made of sterling silver, the case embodies the refined elegance of its era. The interior is fully silver-gilt, protecting the silver from oxidation caused by its contents, making it functional and stylish, designed to hold cigarettes in one halves. There's a hallmark on the clasp. The case includes a suede pouch, making it a great and stylish Christmas gift--a cigarette case for small cigarettes or an ideal business card holder.
