Description

Rare vase resting on a foot with a hot-worked neck decorated with gondolas in Venice. Work in enameled glass released with acid of a very beautiful finesse. Rare decoration with a gondolier in the foreground and the city of Venice represented in the background. Beautiful yellow and blue reflections in the decoration. The waves in the water are worked in relief with acid. The neck of the vase is of irregular shape, hot-worked. Art Nouveau period work in perfect condition. Signature under the base with the initials of the craftsman who worked on this vase.
