

Silver Cigarette Case With Ornamental Design, Birmingham, 1916

250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

A solid and impressive Art Deco sterling silver cigarette case featuring a rich, spiraling ornate pattern and a central monogram. The gently rounded edges and slightly domed top and bottom enhance its elegant design. The exterior showcases intricate, repetitive floral and scroll engravings on both the front and back, reflecting exceptional craftsmanship and attention to detail. The interior is fully silver-gilt, providing protection against oxidation caused by its contents. Designed to hold cigarettes in both halves, this piece is a great and stylish gift--a cigarette case for small cigarettes or an ideal business card holder.

Made by John Rose and fully hallmarked for Birmingham, 1916. John Rose is best known for his high-quality cigar, cigarette, and card cases,

Dealer

Gillers Antiques

Specialists in 19th-century European silverware, porcelain and décor

Mobile : +44 7738009924

Buntingford SG9 0PY

although he also crafted a range of other fine items.

Dimensions: 87.32 mm x 68 mm x 15.2 mm

Weight: 78.85 g

Condition: One very small, barely noticeable dent; otherwise, in excellent condition. Locks and unlocks perfectly.

Please carefully study the accompanying photographs, as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. Please note that shipping costs include labor, packaging, and postage.