

Salamander Embroidered Panel, Silk Threads

540 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silk

Description

Superb panel embroidered with silk threads, on a brown felted canvas background, very high quality embroidery in perfectly bright shades crowned salamander The salamander is the emblem of Sarlat because of its connection with Francis I, King of France in the 16th century. Francis I had chosen the salamander as his personal emblem, because this animal was considered a symbol of purity and regeneration dimensions: 36 x 36 cm to frame

Dealer

Antiquités Chanel

Antiquités Objets éclectiques et petits mobiliers

Tel : 06 71 08 33 05

Chanel.antiquites@gmail.com

Paris 75000