Description

Louis Philippe bedside in end 19th century walnut brambleThis elegant walnut bramble bedside table opens with a door. Once opened, it reveals a shelf.This cabinet also has a drawer located in the belt of the furniture.The door opens with a brass knob in the shape of an olive. As for the drawer, it opens with a rounded wood button.This piece of furniture is made from quality materials and built using ancient techniques: tenons and mortises weld the pieces of wood together and strengthen the strength. The interior of the furniture has been cleaned so that the objects are stored in a very healthy and odorless environment.The bedside is perfectly stable. It rests on low feet that respect the shape of the furniture at the front and are called "boudin" and two straight feet at the back.The top
