Description

Very large charcoal drawing fixed on canvas measuring 100cmx 80cm representing a character wrapped in a classic drape in the style of the great Master Charles Louis LASALLE Signed lower left Charles Louis LASALLE born in 1938 in Hanoi Globe trotter as much out of curiosity as to discover new horizons, different cultures, Charles Louis LASALLE recognizes himself as a Mediterranean painter. His inspiration is imbued with the civilization of olive trees of which he knows all the mythology. In search of baroque romanticism, he is not a guide or a prophet but much more. A discoverer, a revealer, an enchanter. His imagination comes from a Greco-Roman world with ribboned columns, and his characters wrapped in drapes of which he alone knows the technique.
