

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Japanese Porcelain Blue And White Dishes 5x Edo Period 18th Century 19th Century Arita Plates

1 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 20.5 cm

Height : 3.2 cm

Description

A set of five Japanese porcelain blue and white dishes.

Japan, Arita, Edo period, c. 1780-1820.

Dishes on foot rim with scalloped ribbed rim, the well slightly convex and decorated in underglaze blue with a scholar and servant in a garden setting with rocks, florals and houses in the background. A Zen Buddhist text of twenty characters is arranged around the center decoration, this inscription is created using the Sumihajiki (wax resist) technique. Brown edged rim, spur marks to the base.

Provenance:

One of the dishes with a Christie's sticker to the back.

Dealer

Menken Works of Art

Art Asiatique

Tel : 00316-14916974

Herengracht 240

Amsterdam 1016BT

Dimensions:

Diameter 20.5 cm, height 3.2 cm.

Condition:

All in perfect condition, no damages.

Inv. No: MW104