Description

Beautiful Sèvres porcelain vase with ivory-white crackle glaze, designed by Félix Aubert in 1920, a famous creator of the Art-Déco period.

Our vase presented here is a "declassified" model from the famous factory, as it has a glaze firing defect: a circular line with slight enamel retractions just above the base (only visible from below, see photo).

" Much more beautiful in reality than in my photos."

Height: 31.5 cm / Max. diameter 30 cm

Weight : Approx. 8 kg

The price of this vase takes into account the declassified nature of the object, which, free of defects, would have a value of EUR2,500-3,500.

Please note that the Manufacture Nationale de Sèvres mark has been partially removed.
