Description

This small mahogany veneered bookcase opens with two half-surface doors with mitered frame and mahogany burl panel. The right door with rebate is equipped with an original lock with rear key and recessed entry. The interior offers five adjustable shelves on racks. The uprights with sharp angles stand out on an overflowing plinth ending in four rectangular stepped chamfered feet. The cornice is materialized by a chamfered molding. The top is slightly degraded. On the three essential criteria that make a very good piece of furniture, this bookcase ticks all the boxes, namely size, quality and style. *****
