Charming Louis XVI period woodwork trumeau in Provence green relacquered wood and carved wood gilded with leaf. This trumeau is of very reasonable dimensions which will allow it to be very easily integrated into your decoration. The mirror part is surrounded by a wooden rod carved with pearls and a cartouche (slight lack of wood to the right of the cartouche). The trumeau part is carved in applique with a Louis XVI knot and a garland of oak leaves. On the sides applications of gilded wood. This trumeau is presented to you in its found condition, the Provence green lacquer seems to have been redone a few years ago and the mirror has been changed, but it is a very decorative piece with a very beautiful patina. Louis XVI period, late 18th century. Delivery flat in a wooden crate on a pallet by carrier on the
