Description

This elegant 20th century Italian chest of drawers-secretary, made of walnut wood and limoncillo marquetry, stands out for its baroque design that evokes a sense of movement and sophistication. Opening the top reveals a practical desk with small drawers and side compartments, as well as two large drawers at the bottom. One of the drawers bears a metal plate with a seal certifying its Italian origin. The finely carved feet complete its visual appeal. Ideal for adding a touch of distinction to entrances, living rooms or bedrooms. Make it yours and bring home a unique piece of Italian furniture history!
