Description

Scandinavian sideboard by Carlo Jensen for Poul Hundevad published in the 1960s. This small two-door sideboard reveals two compartments. One side with two removable shelves on the right and on the other a series of two drawers also removable. Entirely worked in rosewood, the grain of the wood is sober and elegant. On the top, the sides, the doors, the interior or even the feet, no detail is left behind. Its harmonious proportions allow it to play different roles. Whether in a living room, a bedroom or even an entrance ... This piece of furniture will adapt easily. Made in Denmark sticker on the inside and stamp on the back.
