Description

Rare photogravure photoengraving on copper plate laminated on a formica panel (original) with its integrated hooks.

This is a representation of the Air France Concorde plane parked in front of Berlin-Tegel airport in Germany.

It bears the registration F-FBVFA (visible in the photo).

Period: around 1975.

unsigned, despite research, I have not found any similar representation.

This is now a historical representation, in fact these two monuments of the history of aviation have now disappeared.
