Description

English sideboard from the second half of the 19th century. Finely lacquered and hand-painted wooden and papier mâché cabinet with very pleasant floral figures and decorations. Two-door sideboard with a raised section with turned columns and a small upper shelf, of good capacity and service. Base cabinet, ideal for a living room or study, for antique dealers and interior decorators. Beautiful scenes with figures of romantic style (see photo). It has an old stamp of a Dublin company on the back (see photo) which is still clearly legible. Structurally sound, it shows some signs of age. Hard to find and of great quality, overall in good condition.As each of our items will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee as well as photographic documentation.
