

Newton's Prism For Diffraction, C. 1890

220 EUR

Signature : inconnu

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Description

Triangular prism called Newton used in light diffraction experiments. The prism is mounted on a triangular support held by two articulated arms in blackened steel, mounted on a brass rod on a green cast iron base. The prism measures 4.5x2.1cm and the whole approximately 18-19cm in height. Good condition.

Dealer

Le Zogrscope

Instruments scientifiques et médicaux anciens

Tel : +33688778366

5 rue de Condé

Paris 75006