Description

Oil on canvas painting measuring 45 x 55 cm without frame and 65 x 75 cm with frame depicting an outdoor peasant scene from the Flemish school of the late 17th and early 18th century.

The painting you have asked me to examine is a painting, oil on canvas, depicting a peasant scene with a clear praise of bucolic life, typical of the modus operandi of Flemish painting following the style of Joost De Momper first up to Jan Frans Van Bloemen later

In this canvas, we immediately perceive the overflowing personality of Flemish painting that is easily understood by the traditional range of colours present here and by a clear preference for
