Description

Beautiful set of gilded bronze sconces with three light arms with Louis XVI style ornamentation. These sconces have a wall part with an urn surrounded by a thick garland of foliage and topped with a pine cone at the top. This urn rests on a superposition of acanthus leaves. Below, a ribbon knot is accompanied by a pearl garland winding into a volute at the bottom. A final small knot finishes off this sconces. Each of these sconces has 3 curved branches equipped with chiseled bobèches. Combining finesse and elegance, these two sconces will also seduce you with their beautiful gilding.  Period: Mid-19th century Excellent condition. Delivery in France or internationally.
