Description

Magnificent pair of Charles X period carved solid mahogany gondolas shepherdesses. Work from the 19th century. With gondolas backs, these charming shepherdesses feature delicate sculptures on the uprights, pediments and legs, adding a touch of elegance. The slightly curved armrests blend into the backrest, providing optimal comfort. Scrolled legs at the front and saber feet at the back. Perfect stability. These shepherdesses are covered with a tapestry in perfect condition, delicate and refined in shades of old pink and ecru, with putti and flower medallion patterns. Very comfortable and plump seat. Seat height: 42 cm. Note old restoration on a pediment, see photo. Very good condition. Elegant and refined, these shepherdesses can be used as extra seats, in a living room or bedroom,
