

Leonard Bordier 18ct Gold Pocket Watch With Pearls And Enamel - Made For The Market

20 000 EUR

Signature : L BORDIER

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

A superb late 18th century pocket watch by Leonard Bordier, made circa 1790, in 18 carat gold with fine enamel work and decorated with original pearls. This exceptional piece is a testament to the craftsmanship and precision of Swiss watchmaking, designed for the Chinese market. The watch has a protective crystal case covering the rear pearls, preserving their elegance. In excellent working order, it chimes the hours and quarters, showcasing its sophisticated mechanism. Key Features: Maker: Signed by Leonard Bordier, a renowned Swiss watchmaker of the late 18th century. Material: Crafted in 18 carat gold with intricate enamel work and a full set of original pearls. Functionality: Fully operational, it accurately tells the time and chimes the hours and quarters.

Dealer

Florin Antiques

Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme

Tel : 0034 671 362 406

Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31

Madrid 28004

Protective Crystal Case: Includes its original crystal cover for the pearls on the rear, highlighting its luxurious design. For the Chinese Market: Likely made for export to the Chinese market, reflecting the high demand for such intricate and lavish watches during this period. Condition: Very well preserved with minimal signs of use, considering its age. Specifications: Diameter: 55 mm (approximately 2.17 inches) Circa: 1790 Why Choose This Watch? This pocket watch is not only a functional timepiece, but also a work of art and a historical artifact. Its intricate craftsmanship, luxurious materials, and historical significance make it an ideal acquisition for collectors of luxury watches, connoisseurs of antique jewelry, or anyone who appreciates timeless elegance. Order Now: Get your hands on this rare and remarkable Leonard Bordier pocket watch, a perfect blend of art, luxury, and history. Free insured shipping is included to ensure its safe arrival.