Description

This lovely fir bonnet decorated with flower patterns on the door and a fruit ramp on the sides is typically the joyful Alsatian furniture, warm and easy to place, of a measured height but effective in storage because the width almost of a large and the appreciable depth it fits everywhere from the kitchen to the living room. Its lacquer cover of a beautiful deep red is underlined on the sides of a vertical ramp intertwined with bunches of white grapes, apples and gourds;;; leafy and cleverly distributed; the facade with three framed panels is bright with a beautiful sky blue argued with a vase in a flowered apotheosis, a jet of flowers and in the center in "cushion", the elegant and discreet cornice is of beautiful molding and a triple polychromy. The four discreet feet of the structure underlined by a low fullthe. The interior
