

Tanto (japanese Dagger) With Lacquered Sheath From The Shinto Period

4 300 EUR

Signature : Shôzan

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 49

Description

Mounted in aikuchi (without tsuba guard) in a lacquered scabbard perfectly imitating the wood grain with deep carvings. On the handle of the scabbard is wrapped a centipede (centipede) in relief and copper alloy as well as a bee and a grasshopper. It bears a signature in a cartouche Shôzan. The blade, mumei, in hira zukuri has the decoration (horimono), deeply chiseled, of a 3-clawed dragon chasing the sacred pearl. The kozuka is in suaka and shakudo. Shinto period 18th century. Total dimensions: 49 cm, the blade 24 cm.

Dealer

TORA TORI

TORA TORI Gallery

Tel : +33 (0)6 10 63 25 26

Mobile : +33 (0)6 10 63 25 26

85, RUE DES ROSIERS - MARCHE BIRON - Stand 31
Saint-Ouen 93400