Description

In this idyllic image, a tranquil farmyard bathes in the golden light of the afternoon. Carbonell's expert impressionist handling of light beautifully compliments the rich, earthy tones to create a balanced, blissful piece. The artist gives us a wonderful window for escapism through this harmonious scene.

Francesc Carbonell Massabe was born in Barcelona in 1928. Having had a fascination with painting since he was a child, Carbonell studied at the highly prestigious 'La Llotja' Fine Arts School of Barcelona. Since then, his work has been exhibited widely across the continent, as he has developed into a Master impressionist landscape painter, always focusing on the depiction of light and how it interacts with various objects within
