Description

Wrought iron console with gold leaf gilding - Jean-Jacques Argueyrolles (1954) This sumptuous console, the work of the famous artist Jean-Jacques Argueyrolles, perfectly illustrates the union between excellent craftsmanship and contemporary artistic research. Made of wrought iron, it has an elegant and slender silhouette, enhanced by gold leaf gilding, which adds brilliance and sophistication. The contrast between the raw texture of the iron and the finesse of the gilded details reveals precise and inspired work, the artist's signature. About the artist: Jean-Jacques Argueyrolles, born in 1954, is a French artist recognized for his expertise in the creation of metal furniture and sculptures. After training in applied arts, he specialized in wrought iron work, which he elevates to the rank of art.
