Louis XVIII (Louis Stanislas Xavier; 17 November 1755 - 16 September 1824), known as the Desired (French: le Désiré) was King of France from 1814 to 1824, except for a brief interruption during the Hundred Days in 1815. He spent twenty-three years in exile: during the French Revolution and the First French Empire (1804-1814), and during the Hundred Days.
