Description

Beautiful Life-Size Skull In Solid, Translucent White Crystal Circa 1970.

Superb skull in white crystal, a work inspired by medical skulls and vanities executed around 1970.

It is magnificent in precision and to the exact scale, it recalls for example the skull of the Marquis de Sade but this time made of crystal.

The crystal is magnificent and takes on more or less intense nuances in the light.

A contemporary work inspired by the skulls of vanities, memento mori etc.

that are regularly found in cabinets of curiosities.

Dimensions:

15 cm high by 15 cm wide and 17 cm deep.
