Description

Beautiful pair of curved bedside tables on the front and sides, topped with original Pyrenees breccia marble with corbin beak and featuring two drawers. The front of these is in rosewood veneer arranged diagonally and decorated with inlaid light and stained wood marquetry forming a charming bouquet of flowers. This marquetry is surrounded by bronze fittings depicting branches and flowers. A finely chiseled bronze handle allows each drawer to be opened. The feet of these bedside tables are curved and taper towards the bottom. At the top, they are decorated with slender falls and end with bronze sabots at the bottom. The sides of these bedside tables are also animated and decorated with marquetry of flowers and foliage. Resulting from quality manufacturing, these two Louis XV bedside
