Description

Superb and very rare statuette forming a box or candy box in Limoges porcelain, published by the Théodore Haviland factory and created by Edouard Marcel Sandoz (1881-1971). This is the Bull-dog model representing a female dog and her two puppies. Model created by Sandoz in March 1916, number 4 in the catalog. Published in two sizes, 17 cm and 20 cm with several colors. Here we have the 17 cm model in two colors. Blue signatures of Sandoz, so it is a period piece and not a reissue of the factory. Very good house condition. Our research has allowed us to identify just one other similar piece for sale on the internet at a colleague in Argentina at the price of 6300 euros! We offer it to you at the very reasonable price of 2800 euros, non-negotiable. This is a rare piece that will delight all Sandoz
