Description

Very beautiful Pair of candlesticks / Church candlesticks / Altar candlesticks in gilded and patinated bronze. The candlesticks consist of a candlestick on a vase cup, on a turned baluster shaft support and ending on a triangular or tripod base with 3 ball feet. The 2 candlesticks have a slightly different body. As well as the patina, which differs on one and the other. The triangular base measures 11.5cm on each side for one of the candlesticks, and 13cm on each side for the other. Baroque style These candlesticks are most likely Italian work or in the Flemish style. 17th or 18th century
