Length : 15

Width : 10

Description

Postcard signed in person by Salvador DALI which represents him, always so whimsical, with a stuffed swan.

The postmark from Cadaques (Spain) indicates that it was sent on November 1, 1971.

DALI signed last, across the left side written on the postcard

Very interesting and funny document !

PROVENANCE : Postcard sent to Georges T. (full name will be communicated to the buyer), painter, collaborator and pupil of DALI in the early 1970s - the last photo of the album presents Georges T. with Salvador DALI. We personally acquired a set of DALI drawings, photographs and documents from Georges T.'s nephew and kept the largest drawing (which represents Hermes) for our personal collection
