Description

Superb Louis XVI period gold chiming watch by Dubois in Paris. Enamel dial, with Roman numerals for the hours, and Arabic numerals for the minutes., Louis XV gold hands. Gilded brass movement, with verge escapement, chain, fusee, chiming of the hours and quarters to toc on demand by pressing on the bail, and more discreet tactile chimes, thanks to a button located at eight o'clock. Magnificent gold case, with a country decoration in relief on the center and a decoration of flowers and foliage on the two bezels. Perfect condition. I remain at your disposal for any information or additional photos.
